Here are a couple of suggestions to assist your seller/buyer abilities:

* Arrive early
* Make sure you have a sturdy table and chairs
* Remember to bring small change, small notes, pen, paper and carrier bags
* Draw attention to your stall with signs or colourful tablecloths
* Be prepared for the ‘boot divers’ and ask them to be patient while you set up
* Get ready to haggle
* Keep your car locked with any larger notes and all your valuables
* A sturdy rail will come in handy if you are selling clothing
* Have a look at your stall from the buyers side — does it look interesting and inviting?
* Take part/full payment for items you will deliver, also take down their details
* Leave dangerous and illegal items at home
* Charm your would-be customers with some friendly banter
* It’s worth having some lollies (kids), while tissues or wipes might come in handy too
* Bring a garbage bag to collect your rubbish
* When its all over, take all unwanted items to charity
